Donations: The choir aims to be self-supporting; therefore, we ask for a suggested donation of £5 when you attend. This contributes to our running costs of the choir.

From time to time, we will need to take and publish photographs and videos to support the LMCH Rising Voices Choir for press releases, website pictures, YouTube video's, promotional photographs and general publicity.

You may also be asked for some information such as your name, maybe details regarding illness and an insight as to why you joined the choir and how it has benefited you.

Any information provided by you, and the images, video or audio clips recorded of you, will be stored by LMHC Rising Voices.

To ensure that we are fully aware of your wishes we are asking if you could complete and sign this part of the form as your permission for LMHC Rising Voices to use your details and any photographs, videos or images to promote and publicise the choir.
